

Presidential Authority

The President, with the consent of the Board of Directors, may make committee appointments and create committees. The Board is requested to grant the President the authority to make such appointments as required during the term of his office and also to create such special committees and/or task forces he deems necessary and proper.